It was also agreed to request the City Council at its next meeting to fill the vacancies in the Board of Trustees. The Board of D. The Board has come funds on hand, and at the next meeting several applications from orphans for assistance will come up for consideration.

Another Coalition Meeting—Moving for the Postmastership.—A coalition mass meeting was held at the Colored Odd Fellows Hall, last night, for the purpose of ratifying the action of the readjuster and republican executive committees in endorsing D. A. Windsor for Postmaster of this city, and John S. Wise for Congressman at large. T. B. Ross, colored, presided, and Joseph Lash, white, acted as secretary, Resolutions approving the action of the said committees were unanimously adopted, and a committee appointed to invite Mr. Windsor to address the meeting. A YOUNG GIRL RESCUED.-A young girl of this city left the home of her parents, in the 1st ward, Tuesday night last, and it was supposed she had been enticed to Baltimore by a girl named Compton, with whom she had been in company during the day. The matter was reported to police headquarters, and yesterday Officer James Smith went to that city in search of the wanderer. After a diligent search the officer came up with the girl, late in the evening, in a house of ill fame on North street, No. 104. The girl, after some persuasion, consented to abandon the life she had commenced, and, being assured of a welcome home, she signified her willingness to return to Alexandria. THE MARYLAND FERRY .- It certainly cannot be for want of enterprise or a desire to increse the trade of the city that our citizens seem to take little or no interest in the re-establishment of the Maryland Ferry, but for some reason the meeting called last night for the purpose was so thinly attended that it was deemed advisable to postpone action till Friday night next, when it is hoped that there will a larger attendance, and that the capital will be raised to put into successful operation, at once, the enterprise, the cost of which is so comparatively small. The importance of the Ferry canhot be overestimated and it behoves our business men to give it their earnest attention and see that there is no delay in facilitating trade and travel with our opposite neigh-
